

Pine Grove Church exists to...

- Pine Grove is strongly committed to the inerrant word of God
- Pine Grove is committed to be a light in this community, in our neighborhoods, our schools, and our workplaces.
- Pine Grove recognizes the importance of personal relationships in evangelism, discipleship and fellowship. These relationships are based on love and are a reflection of Christ's love for us.
- Pine Grove ministers to the whole family. We assist parents in developing our children into men and women of God through our children and youth programs.
- Pine Grove recognizes that the Christian life is a never ending growth process, helping each member toward a deeper personal relationship with God.
- Pine Grove maintains its historically strong commitment to support home and foreign missions.
